3. Conclusion of the Agreement and its validity

1. The Agreement shall be considered concluded from the moment of confirmation of the submitted User's Application by the responsible employee of the Provider. The application shall be submitted by the User after downloading and installing by the User of the Mobile RADAR.Screen Application, successful diagnostics of the display module through the specified application, selection of the type of subscription directly in the Application, and confirming the activation request in the Application.

The services referred to in Section 4 of this Agreement shall start to be provided by the Provider from the moment of conclusion of this Agreement, subject to activation by the User (activation means the verification of the application by the Provider and successful value adjustment posting of the ordered subscription).

2. This Agreement shall be effective from the commencement date of the services provision referred to in Section 4 of this Agreement until the termination of the User's use of the service by using Personal Account.

3. If the Client has not paid the ordered services of the Provider within 24h, the Agreement shall be considered as not concluded.

4. The Agreement is valid for 12 months. Upon expiration, the Agreement shall be prolonged for a new term by automatic prolongation.

5. The Agreement shall be terminated upon the Service deactivation.

4. Services provided by the Provider under the Agreement

The Operator is obliged to provide the User with the technical support of the Provider:

Subscription under the terms of "Economy 1 Year", "Standard 1 Year", "Premium 1 Year», which include the extended warranty service of the Security Object through diagnostics and a single-time guaranteed repair or replacement of the User's mobile display module. The subscription provides a service of the extended guarantee and receipt of monetary compensation provided by the Insurer with which the provider has concluded a contract, once in case of failure to perform repair of the display module, within 12 months from the moment of connection/activation of the specified service.

4.1. RADAR.Screen

1. As part of the RADAR.Screen Service, the Operator, with the technical support of the Provider, shall agree to provide the User with access to the Diagnostic App for Android and iOS devices, which the User should download independently from the App Stores and install on his/her mobile device. A detailed description of the mobile application is available on the website www.theradar.com.ua

After installing the application, the Subscriber should perform a complete diagnostics of the mobile device, fill out the Application Form and submit the Application.

Upon receipt of the Submitted Application, the Provider shall, within a period of not more than 24 hours, verify the User's application and confirm or reject it. After successful verification, the service shall be activated if there is sufficient amount of funds on the subscriber's account to perform value adjustment posting of the package of services according to the chosen tariff.

2. In case, after the activation of the service, the Security Object was damaged, the User is obliged to notify the Provider immediately for the possibility of a guaranteed repair or replacement of the Extended Warranty Object in the Service Center, or for receiving monetary compensation in case of failure to repair the device in accordance with the terms of the RADAR.Screen Service Rules. To notify the Service Provider of damage to the Security Object, please call the Support Team at: 0 800 508 112, +380 44 528 81 12 (according to your service provider's tariffs).

3. In case of damage to the device, the User undertakes to comply with the Rules.

4. In the event that the User chooses any subscription other than one-year subscription (Economy 1 year, Standard 1 year or Premium 1 year), he/she may count on the compensation, repair or replacement of the Extended Guarantee Object less the amount of the additional payment up to the annual cost which the Client had to pay. The annual subscription cost is specified in Section 7.1 of this Agreement.

Or, the User has the opportunity to pay the cash difference in favor of the Provider in the User's Personal Account using the integrated acquiring electronic payment system using his/her bank card, the transfer fee shall be deducted from the User's account.

5. In case if the total cost of repair of the Security Object in the SC exceeds the amount specified in clause 4.2 of this Agreement, the User shall decide at his/her own discretion to carry out further repairs and pay in favor of the SC the difference between the cost of repair and the amount of compensation from the Provider at his/her own expense.

6. If the User does not provide complete data, specified in the registration form, or provided false data, or did not inform the Provider with a phone call or an independent change in his/her personal account, when the service is activated, the Provider shall not be liable for non-compliance or improper compliance with the terms of the Agreement.

7. If the User has filled in the incorrect contact information (contact and additional phone number, e-mail address, etc.) in the Questionnaire when connecting the service, or the User has not informed the Provider about their change, the Provider shall not be liable for non-compliance or improper fulfillment of the terms of this Agreement.

8. Compensation for the repair or replacement of the Extended Warranty Object, or Monetary Compensation, is provided to active users of the RADAR.Screen service starting from the next day of paid use of the content service at the time of damage to the mobile device.

4.2. "Cash Compensation" (for the following subscription types: "Economy 1 Year", "Standard 1 Year", "Premium 1 year")

1. Monetary compensation shall be provided by the Provider under this Agreement directly to the User's settlement account, according to the chosen tariff, provided that the SC has presented a conclusion about the inability to repair the display module of the User's smartphone to the Provider, or in the cases described in the Terms of Service, Provider undertakes to pay monetary compensation to the User in the amount of the cost of necessary repair (replacement) of the Device Display Module, determined on the basis of the account (calculation) of the SC.

Max monetary compensation to the User in the amount of:

- Economy tariff - 1500 UAH.
- Standard tariff - 3000 UAH.
- Premium tariff - 10000 UAH.

A detailed description of receiving a cash compensation is contained in the Rules.
